CRIMINAL REFERENCE CHECK

Due to the variety of children’s programs offered at BVO and the fact that servicing our community includes minors, effective January 1st 2005, all volunteers must provide a current Criminal Reference Check. Please initial inside these brackets to indicate you have read this requirement. Volunteer’s initial - [] The Executive Director or Designate will provide you with the requisition for this process and you will return the completed report to her/him directly, at which point they will then be placed in a locked file cabinet.

CODE OF ETHICS

All volunteers are expected to meet and follow the following standards of conduct –

- I shall fulfill my obligations and responsibilities with integrity.
- I shall protect the privacy of those who use the services of BVO and hold in confidence all acquired information concerning clients, staff, board members, donors and volunteers.
- I shall serve clients in a friendly, respectful, conscientious and efficient manner.
- I shall treat other BVO volunteers, staff and board members with respect and work co-operatively with them.
- I shall treat Beaver Valley Outreach, its services and programs with dignity and respect and conduct myself in a manner conducive to the well-being of the organization.

OATH OF CONFIDENTIALITY

All volunteers are expected to take an oath of confidentiality.

- I will not engage in discussion of situations or cases within or outside of BVO except on a need to know basis as is required for the appropriate conduct of Beaver Valley Outreach.
- I undertake, as part of the condition of my volunteer placement, to keep in strict confidence any information concerning participants of BVO programs and services or any persons who donate to BVO.
